Every stake of Z on and every camp laid. Every stake of Z on and every camp of the world was represented at the laying of the capatone on Wednesday, Fully 30,000 Saints from without were there. At 11:30 a. m. the priesthood, according to rank, from apostles down to elders, fied into the Tabernacle, and at 12 o'clock proceeded to the Temple, headed by President Woodroff. The Presidency, consisting of Woodroff, Cannon, and Smith, took their positions on the platform, and the people arranged themselves around it. Held's band played the Capatone March, and then band played the Capitons March, and then the Tabernacle choir, consisting of 500 well-trained voices, sang the Temple Anthem. Prayer and sirging followed, when the Prestdert Mr. Woodruff. laid the capetone bytouching an electric button. Shouls of hosannas shook the Temple block and could be heard for a mile around. Addresses were delivered, promising the fulfilment of God's word to Prophet Smith, that the seints will redeem the world, so that Orist may come and solve an area. and reign on earth. President Woodroff and conceellors George

The White Star line is going to build two colors il twin-screw passenger steamships to compete with the leviathans of the Conard line, now under contruction on the Clyde-The new ships will be bigger than the unomplated Cunarders, which will measure 14,000 rone, and will be 600 feet long and 65 feet beam, with about 30,000 horse power. The new Considers will be guarantied by their constructors to make not less than 21 knots in the open ses. Of course, to upho d their supremacy on the ocean race track the new White Star ships will have to don little better than 21 knors.

In the Jaws of a Bear.

Early Tuesday morning Patrick Moran, the keeper in charge of the bears in the Central Park m magerie, in New York, entered the pit in which are two grizz'y bears, the black tour, and the nuamon. The black bear is far from well, and t was Meran's duty to give him medicine. He entered the pit armed only with a rake. He drove the grizzlies up the rocks, but took no account of the cinnamon, who, having for years wandered around the country with an Italian and his barrel organ, has always been considered harmless. Pat knelt down to dose the sick bear, and a moment later found himself lifted into the air, the consenon having taken a firm hold on the seat of his trousers. Moran yelled for help and the chasmon having taken a firm hold on the seat of his tronsers. Moran yelled for help and kicked with all h s strength, but the bear disregarded his protest. A nurse girl who was passing the bear pit called to Philip Holmes, another keeper, who was ten-ing the bison, and Holmes ran up with a pitchfork and resened his characteristics were sersened his characteristics. nt hart but his trousers are ruined.

"R S. V. P."-A brilliant member of the august bidy now assembled in the State capitol received an invitation to a dining a few days ago from one of Jackson's most accomplished ladies, and down in the lower letthand corner of the card of invitation were the letters "R. S. V. P."
